Purpose & Intent for Webpages

1. Index

Purpose of Intent:

The Index page serves as the central hub of the website, providing visitors with an overview of who I am and what to expect from my online presence The Index acts as a welcoming introduction, inviting visitors to explore my journey and engage with the content.

2. Personality

Purpose of Intent:

The Personality page offers insights into my character, values, and interests beyond academics. This section aims to humanize my online presence by sharing my hobbies, passions, and personal anecdotes. By illustrating my unique traits and perspectives, the Personality page fosters connection and relatability, inviting visitors to understand the person behind the professional facade.

3. Professional

Purpose of Intent:

The Professional page highlights my academic achievements, skills, and career aspirations in the field of computer science. This section aims to present my qualifications, projects, and relevant experiences to potential employers, collaborators, or mentors. By showcasing my professional development, the page reinforces my commitment to growth and readiness to contribute meaningfully to the tech industry.

4. Personal Development

Purpose of Intent:

The Personal Development page outlines my journey of self-improvement and lifelong learning. As well as reflecting on the novel, “Twelve Pillars”. This section aims to share my goals, achievements, and the resources I utilize to enhance my skills and knowledge. By emphasizing my dedication to personal growth, the page serves as a testament to my proactive approach to education and my desire to evolve both personally and professionally.
